Committed to Economic Justice Today

On the occasion of the 25th anniversary of the economic pastoral of the U.S. Catholic Bishops, Economic Justice for All.

“Economic Justice for All at Age 25: A Continuing Challenge for Church and Society”

Thursday, September 8, 7:30 p.m., Harper Center, Auditorium

John R. Donahue, S.J.

A premier New Testament scholar, Father Donahue served as a major consultant in the bishops’ process of writing the pastoral — one of its contributing authors. His talk promises to be timely, as a reminder that Catholic social teaching offers an important challenge and invitation to all of us at a moment when partisan politics threatens to overpower the necessary focus on the common good.

Co-sponsored by the Amelia B. & Emil G. Graff Faculty Chair in Catholic Theological Studies, the Justice & Peace Studies Program, the Creighton College of Business Administration, the Creighton Center for Service and Justice, and the Collaborative Ministry Office.
